God's Commission to Joshua

Shepherds Notes

After the death of Moses, the servant of the Lord, it came to pass that the Lord spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' assistant, saying: "Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses. From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your territory. No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you (Joshua 1-1-5).

We all have tests and trials to go through in this life. There are times of uncertainty, nervousness, fear or worry. I know we are not supposed to worry, but truth be told we do it anyway. Sometimes these life trials my cause us to forget about the awesome God we serve. Moses died and now Joshua is next in line to take his place in leading the Children of Israel.

Take Notice of what God told Joshua:

“the land which I am giving to them,
“every place I have given you, as I said to Moses”
“as I was with Moses.”
“I will be with you”
“I will not leave you”

In the Bible we can read about the great accomplishments of men such as Abraham, Moses, David, Elijah, or any of the prophets or apostles. But we forget about God and put our focus on the men instead of the God behind the man. As we read in the scripture of above, God was there for Moses, and he is also there for us to (Hebrews 13:5). I cannot stress this enough never lose your FAITH; the world do not believe in God's word. Someone said if you ask me what is wrong with this country, just read the bible and see how far we have departed from the word of God, and you will find your answer. This world is full false doctrine Not only will it have you believing in strange things, but it will also lead to spiritual death. Before Abraham could offer up his son to God, Abraham had to offer up himself trusting that God would take care of him and his family. He said to Isaac: "God will provide" this also gives us hope that when troubles arise in our life God will be there for us. In the same manner hear the words of David: "I have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his descendants begging bread" (Psa. 37:25). God is good! God is great! Praise be unto the Lord! Be faithful. Far too often we do not realize just how blessed we are and how awesome and wonderful God really is to us. In Psalm 66:16 it says, "Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will declare what He has done for my soul." While God blesses all men physically, and gives all men the opportunity to hear, know, and obey his word (1 Timothy 2:4; Acts 17:30), Paul wrote, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ" (Ephesians 1:3). It is important to remember that the spiritual blessings of God are reserved for those who are "in Christ."

Scripture Readings

Sunday AM: "A Sight for Sore Souls"
 (Luke 4:18-21)

"¹⁸ The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, ¹⁹ To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. ²⁰ And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. ²¹ And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears."

Sunday PM: "A Cautionary Tale"
 (Romans 1:20-25)

"²⁰ For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: ²¹ Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. ²² Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, ²³ And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. ²⁴ Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: ²⁵ Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen."
